

in addition to our LTC program, other services include:

- Convalescent Care
- Palliative Care
- Respite Care
- Adult Day support offered 7 days per week (80 clients)

With the commitment to individualized care, our Home has many recreational and diversional therapies available throughout the week and weekend, which enhance the quality of life for our residents.

The Salvation Army William Booth Special Care Home, in cooperation with the Regina Qu'Appelle Health Region, is committed to providing holistic care for all people. We seek to provide this service embodied in Christian principles.

The holistic care approach is facilitated through an Interdisciplinary Team approach that is 'Resident / Family Focused' valuing family and community input.
