

Timely delivery of medications

Patients of Regina General's Neurosciences Unit now consistently get their 8 and 10 a.m. medications on time. Improved communication between Nursing and Pharmacy has helped bring about the changes.

“Patients are getting their medications on time, which is important for their health and safety. For nurses, it’s an easier process and it results in a better workflow; it’s a lot more efficient.”

Lisa Zeleny
Licenced practical nurse